Denis Julien of the Green and Colorado River

1- Kelly, Charles. The Mysterious 'D. Julien' [Utah Historical Quarterly]. Salt Lake City: Utah State Historical Society, July, 1933. Volume 6 - Number 3. [83]-112pp. Octavo [23 cm] Gray printed wrappers. Near fine.

Signed and dated by Kelly above his article on Julien. Besides Kelly's article, this issue of Utah Historical Quarterly also contains the following articles: 'Pahute Indian Homelands' by William R. Palmer; 'Map of the Pahute Indian Home Lands'; 'Chipeta, Queen of the Utes, and her equally illustrious husband, noted Chief Ouray' by Albert B. Reagan and Wallace Stark; John Cook's Journal (concluded).

If you've ever floated the Green or Colorado Rivers you may have noticed 'D. Julien' scratched into the side of the canyon walls, and in this article for the UHQ, Kelly put the pieces together for the first time in print.

"After about seven miles the trend of the canyon became more easterly, and we saw the mouth of the Grand [Colorado], the junction [of the Green with the Grand] that hidden mystery which, unless we count D. Julien, only nine white men, the Major's party, had ever seen before us.' Thus wrote Frederick S. Dellenbaugh, historian of Major J.W. Powell's expeditions down the Green and Colorado Rivers in 1869 and 1872."- pg.[83]

To Salt Lake via the Colorado River

2- Rusling, James Fowler.
Freight to Salt Lake City
by the Colorado River.
Letter from the secretary of war relative to the carriage and freight to Salt Lake City by the Colorado River.

Washington DC:
Government Printing
Office, [1872]. U.S. 42d
Cong. 2d Sess. House. Ex.
Doc. No. 166. 8pp. Octavo
[22 cm] Previously bound with stab holes near the spine. Very good.

*Extract of a report by James F. Rusling, Inspector of the Quartermaster's Department, describing a favorable route to California via the Colorado River with entry at a point called Callville, 440 miles
from Salt Lake. Rusling spoke with Brigham Young regarding the route but Rusling felt Young was not truly committed to this route as it would bring an influx of Gentiles. I am able to locate seven institutional holdings.

Touring Yellowstone by Stereoview

8- Yellowstone National Park Through the Stereoscope. New York: Underwood & Underwood, 1904. First Edition. 30 albumen silver print stereoviews [8 cm x 15.5 cm] on gray Underwood & Underwood mounts [9 cm x 18 cm] with titles beneath the image and lengthy descriptions on the reverse. The views are housed in a box and slipcase [19.5 cm x 10 cm x 6.5 cm] Title, publisher and bands silver stamped on the spine of the slipcase. 68pp. booklet in near fine condition, with the fold-out map present at the rear with a short, closed tear, where the map attaches to the rear inside cover.

Large collection of views showcasing the natural wonders of Yellowstone. The booklet begins with a general description of the park, which is followed by detailed descriptions of all thirty views.

"When you see the Yellowstone through the stereoscope you omit the hours of railway and stage ride, but, even without their service, you can secure for yourself a thoroughly accurate and usually vivid sense of location, by using the special (patent) map which accompanies these stereographed outlooks. Do not fail to use the map in connection with each successive standpoint. You will find the slight effort repaid many times over in the increased vividness of your impressions and the heightened reality of the experience as a whole." - pg. 11.

Early Arrington Work on the United Order

10- Arrington, Leonard J. Orderville, Utah: A Pioneer Mormon Experiment in Economic Organization. Logan: Utah State Agricultural College, March, 1954. First Edition. 44pp. Octavo [23.5 cm] Light blue printed yapp style wrappers. Very good. Utah State Agricultural College Monograph Series Volume 2 - Number 2

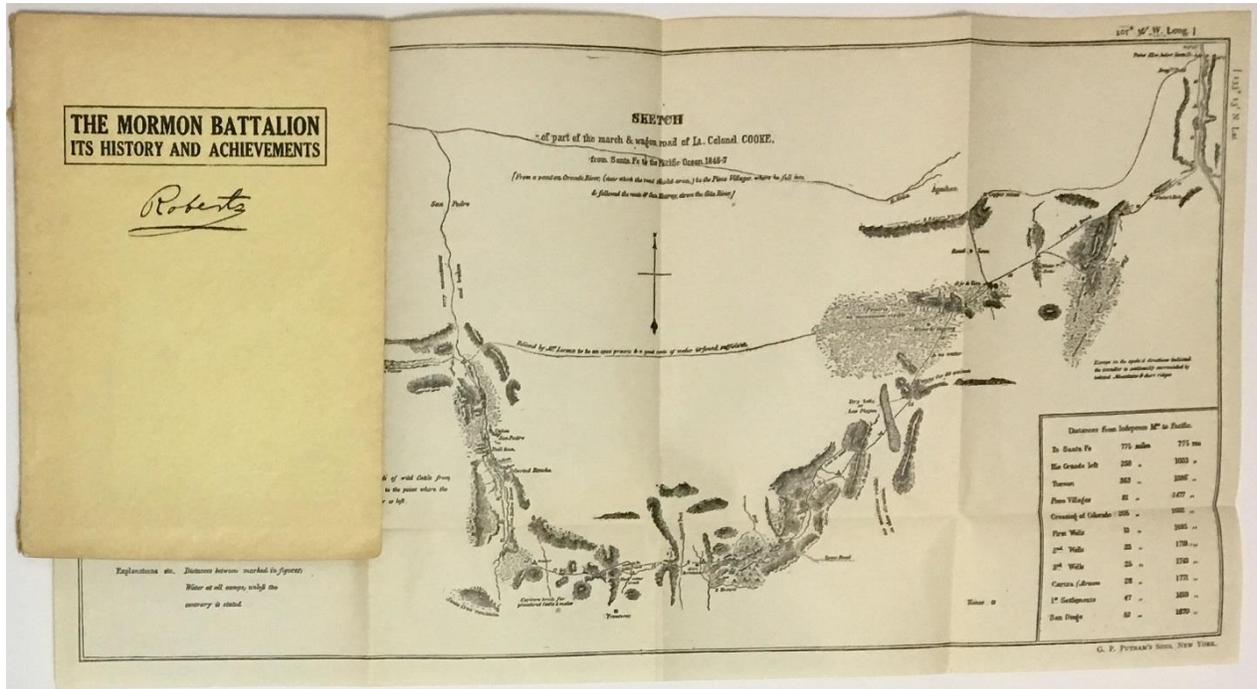

Early work by the noted and celebrated historian on the United Order broadly, and specifically on Orderville.

"Orderville and the United Order have intrigued or repelled the imaginations of nearly all adult Utahns. Indifference toward this amazing social and economic experiment has been rare and difficult. To some it provides final evidence that a communal property system is doomed to failure in this materialistic world. To others it is confirmation that even modern human beings are capable, for a period at least, of overwhelming faith, love, and unselfish industry. One group, and the larger, is impressed with the failure, the other is stirred by the decade of achievement." - from the foreword

B.H. Roberts work on the Mormon Battalion with Map

11- Roberts, Brigham Henry. The Mormon Battalion: Its History and Achievements. Salt Lake City: Deseret News, 1919. First Edition. 96pp. Duodecimo [19 cm] Light yellow printed wrappers. Better than very good. Fold-out map present at the front .

Roberts' monograph on the famed Mormon Battalion and their epic march from the midwest to the Pacific Ocean. Fold-out map in nice condition.

"The Lieutenant-Colonel commanding congratulates the Battalion on their safe arrival on the shores of the Pacific ocean, and the conclusion of their march of over two thousand miles. History will be searched in vain for an equal march of infantry." - Philip St. George Cooke. Flake/Draper 7337.

John Taylor's Major Work on the Atonement

13- Taylor, John. An Examination into and an Elucidation of the Great Principle of the Mediation and Atonement of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Salt Lake City: Deseret News Publishing, 1892. Second Edition. 205pp. Octavo [22 cm] Previously unbound text block that at some point was side stapled. Blank rear wrap. Near fine.

In unusually nice condition. President Taylor's major work on the atonement, published while he was the Prophet.

B.H. Roberts wrote of this work "It is not a work ambitious of displaying literary skill or written with a view to meet the shallow and trifling objections urged against this great, central fact of the gospel by glib-tongued infidels and repeated without thought by their apish followers. It was the object of the author to bring together all the testimonies to be found in holy writ on this subject, as well in modern as in ancient scripture; and most admirably did he succeed, linking the testimonies together with such remarks as make their meanings and bearings clear, and increase the value of the original passages." Flake/Draper 8834.

Uncommon Work on Mormonism by a Non-Mormon

14- Wotherspoon, George.
Mormonism; Or the Faith of the Latter-day Saints: Its History and Moral." A Lecture Delivered before the Sunday Lecture Society, St. George's Hall, Langham Place, on Sunday Afternoon, 24th October, 1886. London: Sunday Lecture Society, 1886. First Edition. 27pp. Duodecimo [17.5 cm] Wrappers. Previously bound, with stab holes at the spine. Better than very good.

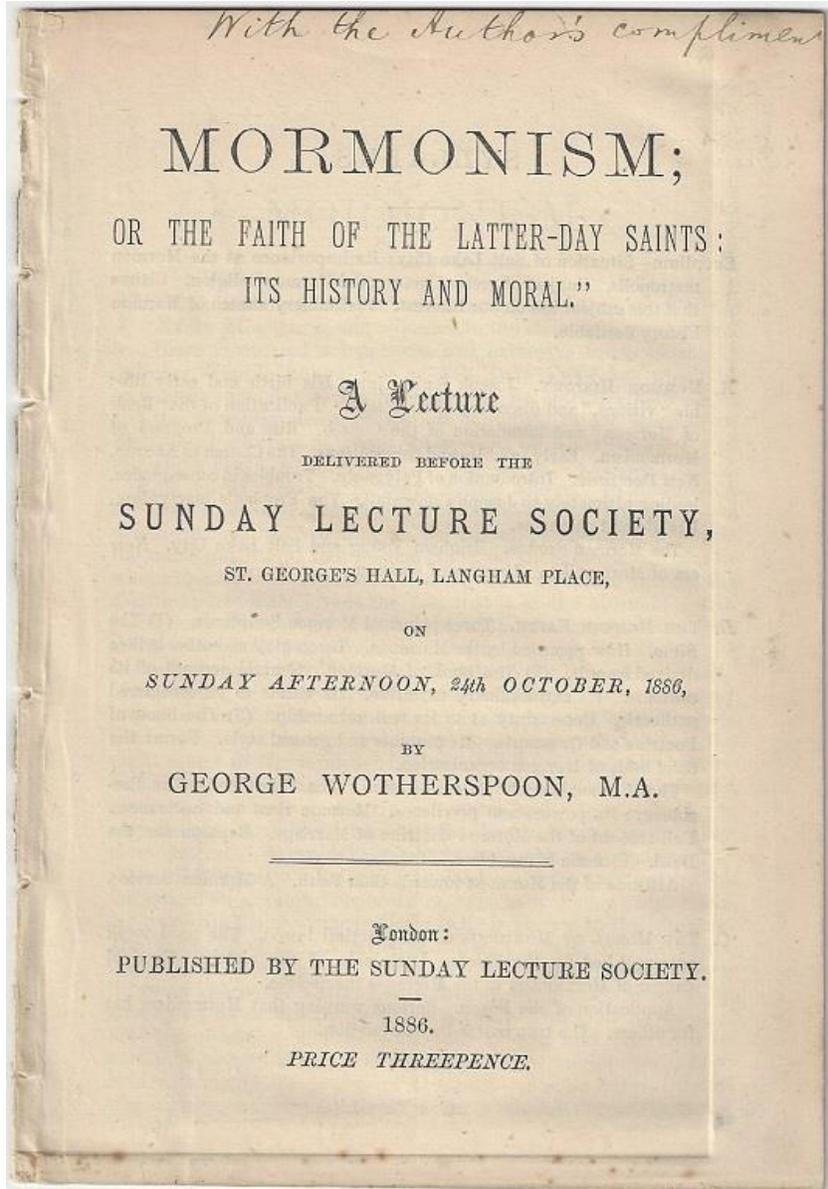

Inscribed by the author at the head of the cover: "With the Author's compliments."

Surprisingly, evenhanded (for the day) discussion on Mormonism, by a British non-Mormon. Syllabus on the verso of the cover, that offers a brief synopsis of the contents: 'Exordium - Situation of Salt Lake City; A. Mormon History; B. The Mormon Faith; C. The Moral of Mormonism.

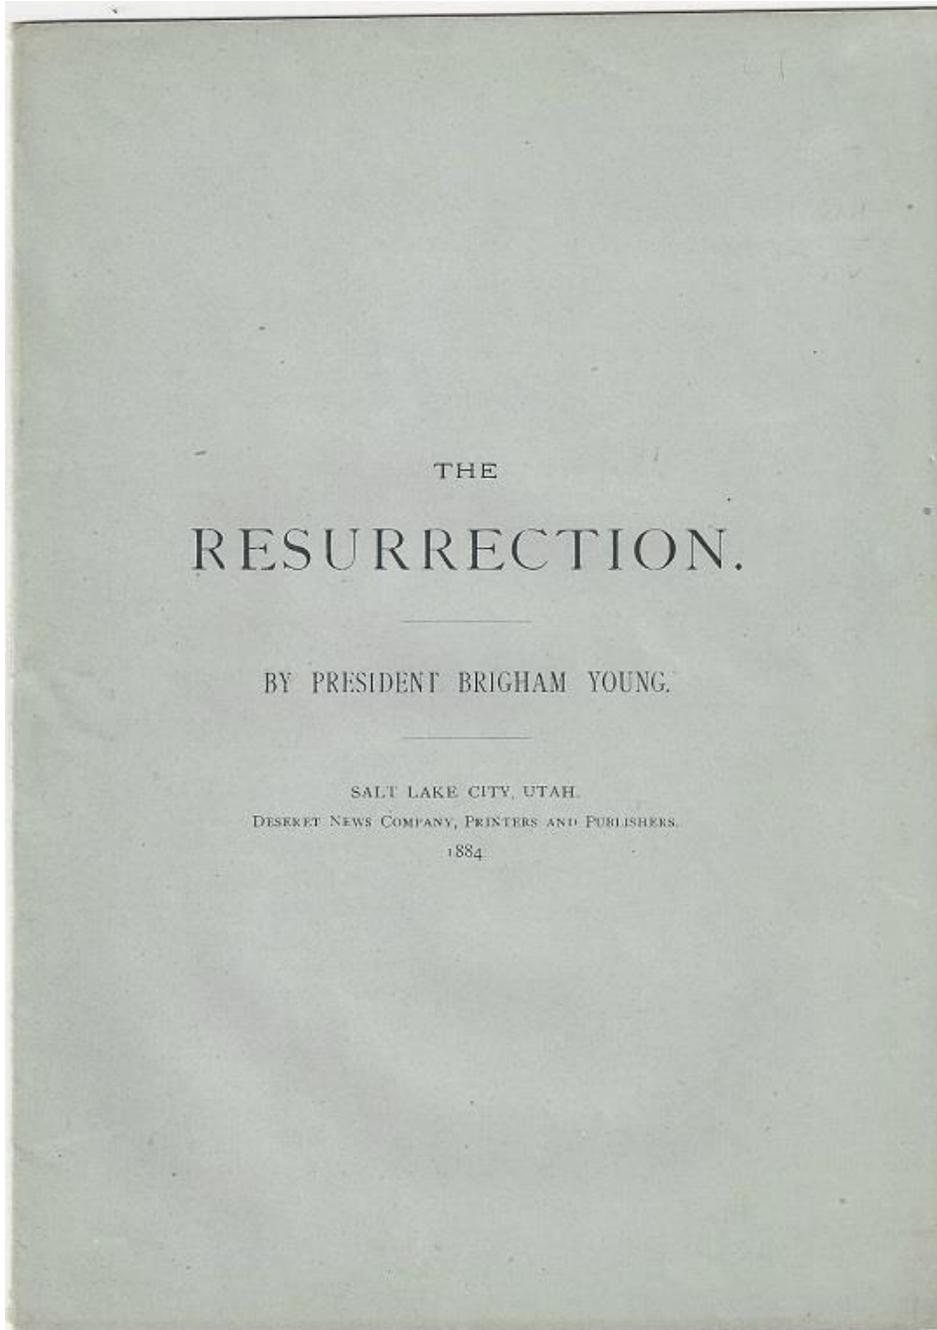

"Let me explain at the outset that I am not here as an apostle of that faith, or a propagandist of that teaching. Neither is it my intention, on the other hand, to inflict on you any anti-Mormon tirade. I do not, indeed, propose to touch, except lightly, on the social aspect of Mormonism: into the vexed question of its legality I shall not enter at all. These are matters which are now exciting keenest interest in the United States, and which a foreigner may well be content to leave in the hands of the people they most concern. My object is merely to speak to you about the so called 'Mormon' Religion."

I am able to locate nine institutional copies. Uncommon. Flake/Draper 10020.

Fine Copy of Brigham Young on the Resurrection

15- Young, Brigham. The Resurrection; A Discourse by Brigham Young, President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Delivered in the New Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, at the General Conference, October 8th, 1875.

Salt Lake City: Deseret News Company, 1884. 16pp. Octavo [21.5 cm] Sewn light blue printed wrappers. Fine.

Treatise on the resurrection by Young, that begins with his personal beliefs on the matter (1-5), which is followed by scripture passages and quotes on same (6-16).

In very nice condition. Variant wrappers (Flake/Draper lists orange). Auerbach 1514. Flake/Draper 10065.
