1- Haynes, Frank Jay. 13040. Old Faithful Geyser, Yellowstone Park. Yellowstone Park, WY: Haynes, [1913]. Large silver gelatin photograph [49.5 cm x 39 cm] on a white heavy stock [50.5 cm x 40 cm] 'Haynes, Yellowstone Park' blind stamped in the lower right corner. The reverse contains a printed title with a Haynes number. Image is in lovely condition with strong contrasts.

Large photograph by Haynes of the most famous geyser in the world, Old Faithful.

Frank Jay Haynes (1853-1921) was employed by the Northern Pacific RR in 1875 to take pictures along their route from Minnesota to the West Coast for advertising and promotional purposes. From 1884 through 1915 Haynes operated a lucrative service industry in Yellowstone National Park making and selling souvenir photographs, taking pictures of tour parties, and publishing graphic souvenirs. F. Jay Haynes was known as the "Official Park Photographer."

The reverse contains a printed title with a Haynes number. Image is in lovely condition with strong contrasts.

Large photograph by Haynes of the Lower Falls of the Yellowstone River from Artist Point.

Jack Ellis Haynes (1884-1962) began working in the family photographic business at a relatively young age and toward the end of 1916 he formally bought out his father's interest in the Yellowstone photography business and was awarded sole right to produce pictorial souvenirs. An accomplished photographer in his own right, Jack operated the park concessions and Saint Paul studios under the name 'J.E. Haynes' and then 'Haynes Inc.' (1937-1945). In 1945 Jack and Isabel moved the base of operations to Bozeman, and established Haynes Studios Inc.

6- Winsor, Henry J. The Great Northwest: A Guidebook and Itinerary for the use of Tourists and Travelers over the lines of the Northern Pacific Railroad, Oregon Railway and Navigation Company and the Oregon and California Railroad. New York: G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1883. First Edition. 276pp. Duodecimo [17.5 cm] Rust colored cloth with the title gilt stamped on the front board and backstrip. Near fine. Color map [36 cm x 76 cm] 'Map of the Northern Pacific Railroad, Its Branches and Allied Lines' by Julius Bien Co. present in rear pocket and in near fine condition with folds as issued.

Detailed guide book for the then, recently completed railroad that ran from Lake Superior to Puget Sound. Sections on each of the states the line passed through (Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakotas, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, Washington). Illustrated throughout.

"Now that the Northern Pacific Railroad is finished, the inviting regions of the Great Northwest, hitherto remote, are made easy of access. The tide of travel flows naturally with a strong current through this new and pleasant channel, and to pilot the wayfarer, this Guide Book has been written. The aim has been to furnish the tourist and traveler with precisely that information which would seem requisite through the successive stages of the journey." - from the introduction.

16- Kelly, Charles and Dale Morgan. Old Greenwood: The Story of Caleb Greenwood: Trapper, Pathfinder and Early Pioneer of the West. Georgetown, CA: Talisman Press, 1965. Signed limited edition. 361pp. Octavo [23.5 cm] Green cloth with the title gilt stamped on the spine. Housed in a double slipcase covered in red and green cloth. Paper label on green slipcase. Book in fine condition with the slipcases showing minor rubbing at the corners.

The printing of this book was limited to 100 copies, this is copy 86. Signed by both Kelly and Morgan on the limitation page.

Caleb Greenwood was a giant figure in the early West. From his early days along the Missouri River as a trapper until years later as an octogenarian he piloted the Ide Party over the Sierra Nevada in 1845, Greenwood was involved with many of the great happenings that shaped the Western history. This book deals with his early life in the fur trade, his important role in the overland emigration to California in 1844-1845, his subsequent contribution as one of the more important trailblazers and guides, his part in the relief of the Donner Party, and his activities along the American River after the discovery of gold at Sutter's Mill in 1848.

This edition has been so extensively revised that it can be considered a completely new book. Only paragraphs here and there survive from the original book. Illustrated throughout with a fold-out map at the rear. Saunders 69

17- [Kiowa] [Native American]. [Photographic Negative Portraits of American Army Indian Scout "I-SEE-O"]. [Fort Sill, OK]: 1925. 6 black and white photographic film negatives. 2 measuring approximately 3 1/2" x 6"; 4 measuring approximately 3" x 2." Slight handling and storage wear to the larger pair. Overall very good and better.

A remarkable photographic grouping of Native American and military-interest: A group of six original film negatives shot by an accomplished soldier-photographer at Fort Sill, Oklahoma in 1925.

Highlighted by a pair of remarkably clean and well executed portraits of an important Native American US Army soldier named I-SEE-O, a well-known member of the Kiowa tribe who lived at Fort Sill in Oklahoma until his death in 1927. These negatives are dated February 22, 1925 and were captured by a then soldier named Carlyle Chamberlain (1894-1969) who went on to a long career as a police photographer in Louisville.

The two large portraits are accompanied by four smaller negatives which Chamberlain used to produce "vest pocket" prints. One is almost identical (though slightly different) than one of the larger images of I-SEE-O and the other three capture another Native American soldier, (possibly a son or relative of I-SEE-O?) identified as Harry Teeiseeo. These are also dated 2-22-1925. We are unable to locate any information on this man, though it's possible we're misreading the name.

18- [Barry, David Francis]. Ashishishe [Curly]. Le Mars, IA: Dwight, [1877]. Albumen cabinet card [14.5 cm x 10.5 cm] on a gilt-edged decorative cut cream mount [16.5 cm x 11 cm] with a gilt stamped photographer's mark below the image. View shows some minor fading and spotting.

Curly (c.1856-1923) was a Crow Scout for General George A. Custer and is usually regarded as the only survivor from the U.S. Army's defeat at the Battle of the Little Big Horn. Nice image of Ashishishe [Curly] in profile from his sitting with Barry in 1877 that was presumably acquired by Dwight and released under his own name.

This photograph was taken a year after the massacre of General George A. Custer and the U.S. 7th Cavalry Regiment at the Little Big Horn at the hands of the Sioux, Arapaho and Cheyenne. This battle is usually cited as the bloody climax of the Plains Indian Wars.

20- Chase, Alma. Gold Edge Pharmacy [Nephi, UT]. Nephi, UT: Alma Chase Photography, (c.1911). Panorama photograph [11 cm x 24 cm] Very good. Remnants of black paper attached to the reverse of the image likely from being removed from a scrapbook. "Alma Chase, Nephi, Utah" stamped in blue ink on the reverse. Manuscript identification on the reverse.

Black and white photograph of the interior of the Gold-Edge Pharmacy that was located in Nephi, Utah. Image shows a soda fountain in the foreground with glass counter cases and shelves displaying merchandise, a man in a suit stands behind the cases in the background.

Articles of Faith

Of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

1. We believe in God, the Eternal Father, and in His Son, Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost.
2. We believe that men will be punished for their own sins, and not for Adam's transgression.
3. We believe that, through the atonement of Christ, all mankind may be saved, by obedience to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel.
4. We believe that the first principles and ordinances of the Gospel are: First, Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; second, Repentance; third, Baptism by immersion for the remission of sins; fourth, Laying on of Hands for the Gift of the Holy Ghost.
5. We believe that a man must be called of God, by "prophecy, and by the laying on of hands," by those who are in authority, to preach the Gospel and administer in the ordinances thereof.
6. We believe in the same organization that existed in the primitive church, namely, apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, evangelists, etc.
7. We believe in the gift of tongues, prophecy, revelation, visions, healing, interpretation of tongues, etc.
8. We believe the Bible to be the word of God, as far as it is translated correctly; we also believe the Book of Mormon to be the word of God.
9. We believe all that God has revealed, all that He does now reveal, and we believe that He will yet reveal many great and important things pertaining to the Kingdom of God.
10. We believe in the literal gathering of Israel and in the restoration of the Ten Tribes. That Zion will be built upon this continent. That Christ will reign personally upon the earth, and that the earth will be renewed and receive its paradisaical glory.
11. We claim the privilege of worshipping Almighty God according to the dictates of our conscience, and allow all men the same privilege, let them worship how, where or what they may.
12. We believe in being subject to kings, presidents, rulers and magistrates, in obeying, honoring and sustaining the law.
13. We believe in being honest, true, chaste, benevolent, virtuous, and in doing good to ALL MEN; indeed we may say that we follow the admonition of Paul, "We believe all things, we hope all things, we have endured many things, and hope to be able to endure all things. If there is anything virtuous, lovely, or of good report or praiseworthy we seek after these things."

23- [The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints]. Bureau of Information and Church Literature [Calling Card]. Salt Lake City: (c.1930). Calling card [6 cm x 11.5 cm] on cream colored stock printed in black ink on both sides. Near fine.

Calling card produced for LDS Church's Bureau of Information, which was located on the Temple Block and was charged with spreading the Gospel to those who visited Temple Square and Salt Lake City. At the center is an image of the Temple Block from the southeast corner and at the left margin is printed: 'Should you wish any further information concerning our doctrines, please write.' At the right is a blank line under the text: 'Presented by.'

The reverse prints the 'Articles of Faith.'

24- Smith, Joseph. Selections of the Book of Mormon in the Deseret Alphabet. New York: Published for Deseret University by Russell Brothers, 1869. First Edition. 116pp. Octavo [22.5 cm] 1/2 blue leather over light blue printed boards. Very good. Gentle wear to boards with minor rubbing to corners.

The University of Deseret intended to publish the Book of Mormon in three separate parts for the use of school children and incoming immigrants. Only part one was ever printed.

"[Brigham] Young therefore directed George D. Watt, an Englishman, and an early Mormon convert, to create a new alphabet based on English language phonic values. Watt may have been Young's personal secretary. What is certain is that he was an expert in the then-new and very popular Pitman system of shorthand. The alphabet assignment was handed to Watt in 1853, and by the following year he was able to lay before Young a 32 - character system (eventually increased to 38)" - Wentz, Roby 'Thirty-eight Mormon Characters' p.12

25- Callis, Charles Albert. Old-time Southern States Missionary Songs, Composed by Missionaries. Also Popular Southern Songs. [Atlanta, GA]: 1921. 32pp. Sextodecimo [16 cm] White printed wrappers. Very good. Minor damp stain to fore edge of textblock.

Rare hymn book produced by the Southern States Mission. This is not something that we have handled previously, we locate three institutional holdings.

"A Few words relative to the origin and use of the 'Old-Time Southern States Missionary Songs.' They were written by Elders during their missionary days in Dixie. In response to numerous requests these songs are now compiled and published. The first verse and chorus of five Southern melodies have been added to the collection. It is not intended that they be sung at religious services in lieu of the 'strong, stalwarts hymns of the present dispensation' which are in our hymn books." - from the Preface. Flake/Draper 1104.

JERALD AND SANDRA TANNER'S DISTORTED
VIEW OF MORMONISM: A RESPONSE TO MORMONISM — SHADOW OR REALITY?

2 OF 17

By a Latter-day Saint Historian

D. Michael Quinn
21 November 2018

Salt Lake City, Utah
1977

26- [Quinn, D. Michael] Latter-day Saint Historian. Jerald and Sandra Tanner's Distorted View of Mormonism: A Response to Mormonism - Shadow or Reality. Salt Lake City: 1977. First Edition, #2/17. 63pp. Sextodecimo [19 cm] Stapled white printed wrappers. Fine.

Signed, numbered and dated by Quinn on the cover. Quinn stated that these are the only copies of this work that he will sign. There are seventeen copies in this limitation.

According to the newly published diaries of LDS Church Historian Leonard J. Arrington, Quinn wrote this short work as a rebuttal to the Tanners' publications, critical of the LDS Church, including 'Mormonism - Shadow or Reality,' and used funds from a group associated with the LDS Church History to print it. A note and a key were anonymously delivered to Sam Weller with directions to a storage unit in Salt Lake that contained the print run for this work and instructions to distribute these as he saw fit. The Tanners quickly suspected Quinn was the author and asked him, and others, directly. Quinn and Arrington both denied, initially, that Quinn was the author. In his diary, Arrington regrets lying about the authorship.

This is the first stand-alone publication by the renowned Mormon historian and thinker, D. Michael Quinn, that predates his previously thought of first work 'J. Rueben Clark:, The Church Years.' Uncommon.

27- [Photo Album] [Arbon, Idaho] [Southern Idaho] [Northern Utah]. [Family Photo Album from Arbor, Idaho]. [Various: Arbon, ID; Logan, UT; Malad, ID]: (1934-1947). [36]pp. Quarto [32.5 cm] black grained spiral bound album that has 'photographs' gilt stamped on the front board. Commercial album with 367 black and white silver print snapshots with most measuring 9.5 cm x 6 cm and loosely fit into black corner mounts to rectos and versos of 18 black leaves, photos also mounted on the front and rear pastedowns. 2 additional photos laid in. Most photographs are identified in black ink on the images, with the place, people and date noted.

A well identified album documenting the life of the Larsen family, who lived in the small farming community of Arbon, Idaho, who had family in Mendon [UT], Logan [UT] and Malad. The last names of the extended family listed are: Leavitt, Tanner, Baker and Haynes. A dozen plus contemporary photo reprints of ancestors appear, all are identified. We believe this album was compiled by Rosalie Larsen, whose name is written in ink on the cover.

Nice well-identified album of vernacular photography documenting the lives of an extended family in southern Idaho and northern Utah.
