Card Road Maps from Salt Lake City to Yellowstone

7- Rishel, W.D. [Salt Lake to Yellowstone]. [Salt Lake City, UT]: Salt Lake Tribune Auto Map Service, (c.1920). 8 loose cream-colored card route logs [23 cm x 11 cm] printed in black ink. All cards good or better with age-toning and discoloring.

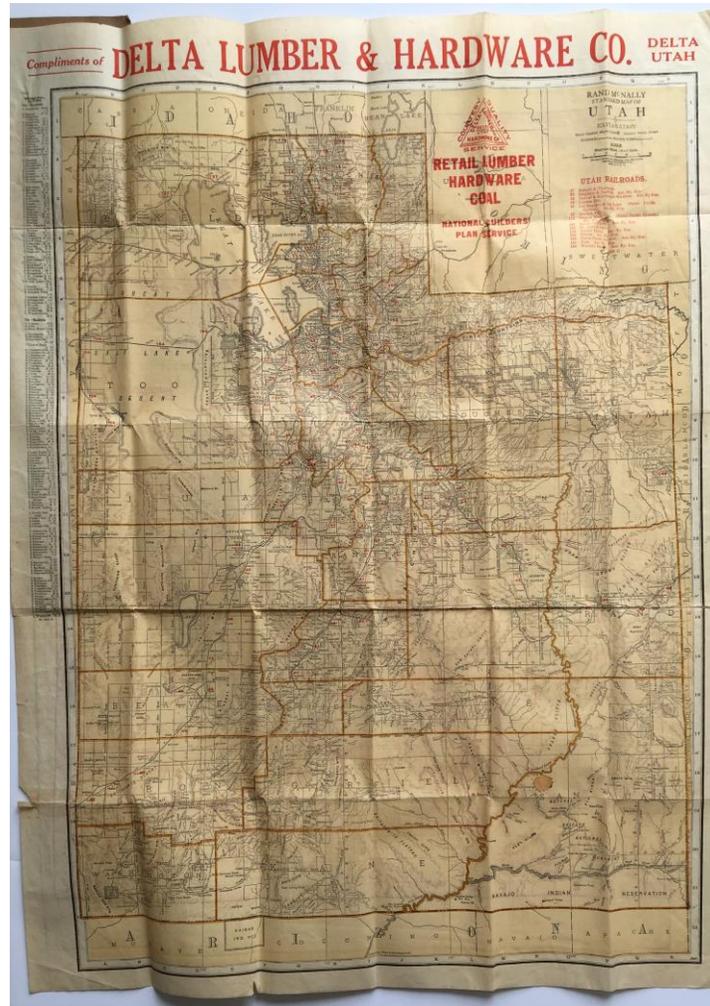

The front side of every route log offers a road map between two points and the ensuing card, picks up where the previous map left off. Distance is noted between towns and landmarks. Someone had added manuscript time splits (they left Salt Lake at 9am). Maps drawn by 'Bell'

The reverse of each has a paragraph that notes road conditions, speed limits, and brief observations. Below this is a list of the towns that one would pass through on the journey and their population.

Cards present are: 'Salt Lake to Ogden' / 'Ogden - Brigham - Tremonton' / 'Tremonton to Downey' / 'Downey to Pocatello' / 'Pocatello to Idaho Falls' / 'Idaho Falls to Anthony' / 'Victor, Idaho to Jackson, Wyoming' / 'Jackson to Yellowstone.' Lacks the St. Anthony to Victor card (which is a shame)
