Almost Unobtainable Translator Guide

1- [The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints]. Lexicon of the Book of Mormon - Doctrine & Covenants - Pearl of Great Price. Salt Lake City: The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1985. First Edition. 3 Volumes. [28 cm] Brown grained buckram with the titles gilt stamped on the title page. All volumes fine.

This is set #3 of an unknown edition size, but presumably small-ish. This excessively rare set was never intended for public use and its distribution was prohibited and for in-house use, authorization was required. This is not a set that we have encountered in two decades in the Mormon Book Trade and we are aware of only two sets being sold in the same time. We locate no institutional holdings.

The Lexicon is designed as a reference work for translation of the scriptures of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Contained in this first complete edition are definitions for all occurrences of every word found in the scriptural texts of The Book of Mormon, The Doctrine and Covenants, and The Pearl of Great Price. This edition is the product of several years' work by a staff of specialists, including lexicographers, editors, and other support personnel, and has been reviewed and approved by the Scriptures Publication Committee under the direction of The Quorum of the Twelve.

Important Schismatic Work from the King of Beaver Island

2- [Strang, James Jesse]. The Book of the Law of the Lord. Printed by Command of the King at the Royal Press, Saint James. [Saint James, MI]: [1856]. Second Edition. (17)-336pp. Duodecimo [17 cm] Bound upside down in contemporary 3/4 calf over cloth with the title and bands gilt stamped on the backstrip. Without title page as issued.

This is the second edition of Strang's most important work, enlarged from the first edition, that was not completed during Strang's lifetime. His followers later printed front matter (for the third edition) to bind with the sheets. Flake/Draper 8458. Morgan 31. Howes S1061. Sabin 92680. Streeter 2298. Michigan Rarities 88. Auerbach 1275.

Letter of Introduction from Brigham Young

4- Young Brigham. Autograph Letter Signed (ALS). Provo: Provo Manufacturing Company, July 24, 1843. Single ruled leaf [32 cm x 20] of 'Provo Manufacturing Company' letterhead. Manuscript content on one side in the hand of Henry Dixon with the signature of Brigham Young at the foot. Four evenly spaced horizontal folds, with some splitting at each.

Letter of introduction from Mormon leader, Brigham Young, on behalf of William Bringham and the Provo Manufacturing Company. William Bringham was one of the founders of Las Vegas

"Provo City, U.T. 1st April 1875. To all to whom this may come: The bearer hereof the Hon. Wm. Bringham of Springville, U.T. having occasion to visit the Eastern States. In the interests of Provo Manufacturing Company. We cheerfully recommend him as a Gentlemen, worthy of the respect and confidence of all. He is authorized to negotiate for the sale of wool, and to contract such other business as the Company may require. Any facility you may extend him for acquiring such information he may desire will greatly oblige. (signed) Henry A. Dixon, Secty. (signed) Brigham Young President."

John Brown to His Son

5- Brown, John. Autograph Letter Signed (ALS) to his son, John Brown Jr. Richfield, OH: July 24, 1843. Single leaf [32 cm x 20] with folds and remnants of red wax seal. Some splitting at the folds with a few tape "repairs" to the reverse. Small hole from wax seal.

Letter from the abolitionist John Brown to his oldest son (and namesake). In this letter Brown inquires of his son's activities and offers an update of his business and life. He also informs his son that he has "stopped all correspondence with heaven." The reverse contains a signed statement from his son, Jason, that he received this letter from his brother and that it is in his father's hand. This is followed by a signed statement from Judge George Albion Gibbs of Pasadena. Very nice content.

The Largest Seminole Card Collection Assembled

6- [Native American] [Florida] [Seminole]. Seminole Postcard Collection [Native Americans]. (c.1900-1960). 545 Postcards: 198 Real Photos, 42 Black and White, 132 Photochromes, 113 Linen Postcards, 60 Chromes all approximately 9 cm x 14 cm. Most in nice condition. Several contain manuscript notes and postmarks. Various photographers and printers.

Very large focused collection on the Seminole tribe, assembled over decades by the noted Florida collector, Russell V. Hughes (1925-2018) of Orlando. This collection was slowly and methodically put together and to recreate this collection would be hard and if possible, would likely take decades or longer. A nice look at the Seminole tribe of southern Florida from the turn of the century to the mid-20th century

People: William McKinley Osceola, Cory Osceola, Shirttail Charley, John Willie, Dr. Tiger, Mrs. John Poole, 'Seminole Medicine Men,' Gov. David Sholtz, Sonny Coppinger, Henry Cypruss, Billy Bowlegs, Tom Tiger, Cowboy Bill, Josie Bill, Joe Dan Osceola as well as unidentified women, children, and men.

Places: Everglades, Jungle Queen Trading Post, Pirates Cove Indian Village, Royal Palm Tamiami Trail, Fort Myers, Brighton, Chestnut Billy's Camp, Osceola Indian Village Miami, John Poole's Indian Village, Seminole Indian Village St. Petersburg, Matalacha Pass, Fort Pierce, Fort Lauderdale, Okeechobee, Musa Isle, Tropical Hobbyland, Silver Springs, Miami River and other locales in southern Florida

Activities: canoeing, spear fishing, sewing, archery, cooking, eating, alligator wrestling, weddings, doll making, cutting hair, stringing beads, etc.

"[Russell] Hughes has postcards from cities throughout Florida, and his Florida collection alone totals about 50,000. Nostalgia is how I got into it, he said. I began seeing buildings and areas torn down and becoming entirely different entities. My city and state were changing, and I wanted to save a record of it. I got hooked." - Orlando Sentinel (3/31/1996). A link to all the images available.

Panorama of Malad

9- [Malad] [Idaho]. Panorama of Malad Valley and Malad City. [Malad, ID]: (c.1980). Vernacular black and white panorama photograph [18 cm x 88 cm] made up of four separate photographs [18 cm x 22 cm] that have been mounted on board and attached on the reverse with duct tape. Fine. Images have strong contrasts.

Panorama of the Malad Valley of southern Idaho in four panels that has detailed typed one-paragraph descriptions of each panel attached to the reverse. There is also a three-paragraph description of the particular project. The Malad Valley was settled by Welsh Mormon pioneers in the mid 1860s.

"A SET OF PAMARAMA [sic] OF MALAD VALLEY AND MALAD CITY TAKEN FROM THE EAST HILLS IN THE EARLY 1980's. It seems that we nearly always have a reason for doing something. There is a story in connection with these pictures that may be of interest. Sister Elaine Castleton had a cousin who was an author and historian. In his later years he became ill with a terminal disease and spent his last years of life desperately trying to finish some of the projects he had started. One of the things he wanted to do most of all was to visit, once more, the town and land of his birth. He and Elaine had some of the same interests and so they had always been close. When it became evident to him that he would never be able to visit Malad again, he asked her if she would have someone take pictures of the valley showing, especially the Samaria mountains, Blue Rock and the 'M' on the hill, his old home and the street on which he lived as a child. Elaine asked me to take those pictures and this set of pamarama [sic] pictures are a part of them."

Signed by President McKay to Preston Robinson

12- [O. Preston Robinson] [David O. McKay]. David O. McKay Signed Portrait. [Salt Lake City, UT]: [1958]. Color paper print [25 cm x 21 cm] under a cream-colored mat in a matching wooden frame.

Portrait of a seated President McKay who has the Book of Mormon and Doctrine & Covenants resting on his knee. Inscribed in black ink on the mat beneath the portrait: "To Christine and Preston Robinson Sincerely yours David O. McKay Sept. 8, 1958."

O. Preston Robinson (1903-1990) was a community leader and a prominent professor at the University of Utah, in his long career he was also the Deseret News Editor, President of the British Mission and President of the Utah Symphony.

Born on September 8, 1873, David O. McKay spent his youth in Huntsville, Utah. He studied at the Weber Stake Academy and the University of Utah to prepare for a career in education. After completing formal schooling and a mission, he married his college sweetheart, Emma Ray Riggs, in 1901. Five years later, at the age of 32, he was called as an Apostle, beginning a life of service in the Church's highest councils. He was sustained as President of the Church on April 9, 1951. He expanded the vision of the Church's worldwide mission, and under his administration, the first stakes were created outside of the United States. He also strengthened Church membership with a renewed emphasis on the value of family life and education. After 44 years in the Quorum of the Twelve and 19 as Church President, David O. McKay died on January 18, 1970, in Salt Lake City at the age of 96.

Nice association piece, connecting the Prophet of the Mormon Church and the editor of the Deseret News.

San Francisco from Russian Hill

14- Watkins, Carleton E. Panorama from Russian Hill, San Francisco (No. 8). San Francisco: (c.1874). Albumen stereoview [8 cm x 15 cm] on an orange 'Watkins Pacific Coast' mount [8.5 cm x 17 cm] Minor fading to extremities of image with gentle foxing to back of mount.

Bird's eye view of San Francisco from Russian Hill

Carleton E. Watkins (1829-1916) was one of the finest photographers of the nineteenth century. Between 1854 and 1891 he documented the American West from southern California to British Columbia and inland to Montana, Utah, and Arizona. He was a sympathetic and masterful recorder, whose pictures possess a clarity and strength equal to the magnificence of the land. His photographs of Yosemite so captured the imagination of legislators that Congress moved to preserve the area as a wilderness.

Bulldozing Jungle in WWII

17- McKee, Sgt. John Donald. G.I.'s W.W.II Scrapbook: 1874th Engineer Aviation Battalion. [Warren, WY; New Guinea; Noemfoor]: 1942-1944. [54]pp. Large quarto [37 cm x 31 cm] Brown side sewn grained buckram boards with 'Scrapbook' on the front board. Some chipping to the leaves near the corners.

This album begins with McKee's training in Wyoming and follows with his service as a member of 1874th Engineer Aviation Battalion as they clear jungle and build airstrips and roads through New Guinea and Noemfoor. 258 black and white snapshots are in corner mounts and the vast majority are well identified (people, rank, place, activity, etc.). The album contains dozens of pieces of attached ephemera including McKee's enlistment papers (attached to the first leaf); notice of applications (5); newspaper clippings about things he and his unit are working; mimeographed schedules, receipts, telegrams, military papers, invitations, uniform patches, general ephemera. An excellent album

"Prvt. John D. McKee, Catlin, stationed at Ft. Francis E. Warren, Wyo., is really 'knee deep' in the camp's conditioning campaign. He was picked as one of 12 men to represent Co. G in a regimental track meet, and the dozen representatives took away the title. They finished first in tent pitching and display of equipment, in scaling a 12 foot wall with pack and rifle, setting a new record in the latter, and first in drill. There were 15,000 soldiers present, along with cheer leaders." - from an attached news clipping.

Union Pacific promotional piece advertising Death Valley, reached by the U.P. and Tonopah and Tidewater Railroads. illustrated with tinted photographs and margin illustrations of local flora. U.S. map on page 22 locates the Tonopah and Tidewater line into Death Valley from the U.P. line at Crucero. The majority of the text is dedicated to the history of the area as well as tours and accommodations offered.

"Now, where desert prospectors once made lonely camp in Death Valley, two luxurious desert hotels stand. Where once 20-mule borax teams and prospectors' burros were the only modes of transportation over the trackless desert, roomy motor-buses carry the visitors over excellent highways. The same Valley whose summer heat gave emigrants of 1850 the inspiration for its name, has a mild winter climate scarcely equaled anywhere." - pg. 3.

Like a Garden of Eden

37- Nichols, Howard S. Los Angeles County California. Los Angeles: Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, 1925. 52pp. Octavo [25 cm] Illustrated stapled wrappers. Very good. Faint vertical bend to the cover.

Los Angeles promotional piece issued by the Chamber of Commerce that contains descriptions of Los Angeles illustrated with black and white views

"The opulent beauty of the district now called Los Angeles County gladdened the hearts of explorers long ago. The unique equability of its charming climate offered health. The wealth of natural resources in its warm valleys, rolling hills, high mountains and picturesque coast contour, promised prosperity. It was like a Garden of Eden to the traveled-tired padres in 1769."
