Uncommon Nevada & Southern California Touring Map

1- Clason, George S. Map of Nevada and Southern California. Denver: The Clason Map Company, 1907. Color map [102 cm x 58 cm] that folds out of a green cloth index book. [23pp] Sextodecimo [18 cm] the title is gilt stamped on the front board. Very good. Some splitting at folds of map, but mostly very good.

Map lists the new camps and settlements at the head and the wagon roads, railroads, proposed railroads, springs and mining camps then in use. This is the larger Nevada/California map that includes all of Southern California from Santa Barbara to the border with Mexico. I can locate three institutional holding. Rare.

Comprehensive 1934 Touring Map of Utah

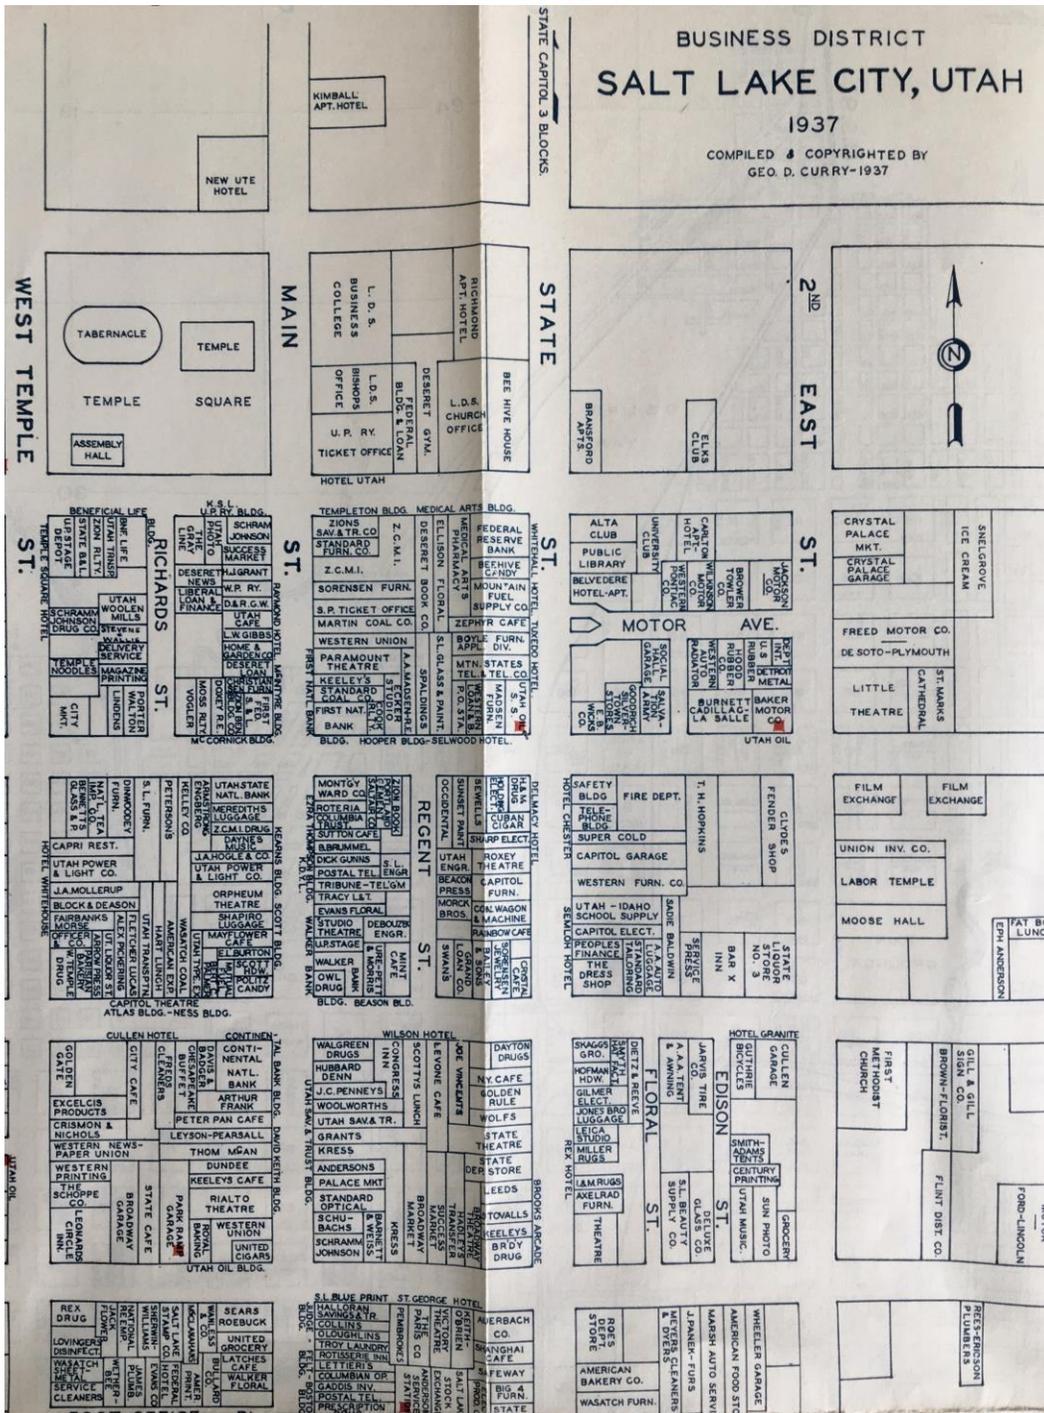

2- [Utah]. Rand McNally Pocket maps of Utah for Tourists, Travelers, Shippers, General Commercial and Business Reference. Chicago: Rand McNally & Company, 1934. Map [71 cm x 53 cm] that folds-out of an index that is bound in color illustrated wrappers. 23pp [23.5 cm] Near fine. Map and booklet are both bright.

Complete indexed reference map showing all cities, towns, counties, railroads, electric lines, waterways and physical features. The index offers a list of the then cities and towns with populations totals, and indicating postal and banking facilities in each.

Reverse contains: 'Rand McNally Standard Auto Road Map of Western United States.'

1937 Tourist Map for Salt Lake City

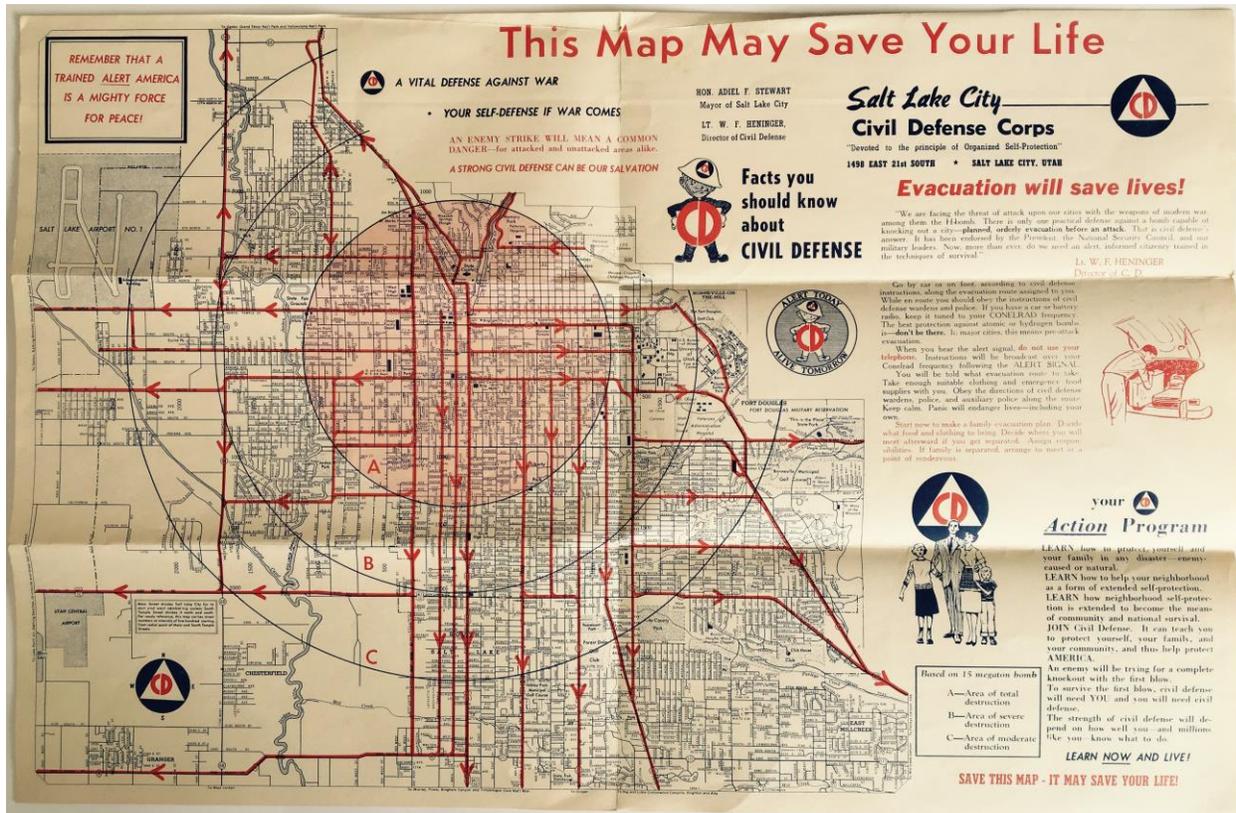

3- Curry, George D. Salt Lake City Map, Including Detailed Plan of the Business District. Salt Lake City: Utah Oil Refining Company, 1937. Map [45 cm x 41 cm] on a sheet [48 cm x 61 cm] that folds up [24 cm x 10 cm]. Near fine with folds as issued.

Map shows the Salt Lake area (27th south to 12th north / 23rd east to Redwood) with an alphabetical street index to the left side. Verso has a detailed map [45 cm x 30 cm] of Salt Lake's business district (9th south to North Temple / 3rd east to 3rd west) that locates many of the city's businesses. Verso also offers historical highlights and statistics of Salt Lake City with a list of places to see with short descriptions.

Escape from Salt Lake

5- Heninger, W.F. Evacuation Map and Instructions. Salt Lake City: Department of Public Affairs of Salt Lake City Civil Defense Corps. Map [48 cm x 32 cm] that folds up [24 cm x 10.5 cm] printed in red and blue ink on a cream-colored sheet. Near fine.

Detailed map showing the Salt Lake area (35th south to 17th north / 25th east to 34th west) and the evacuation routes out of the area in the event of a nuclear bomb being dropped. Verso of map offers instructions and tips for surviving.

"We are facing the threat of attack upon our cities with the weapons of modern war, among them the H-bomb. There is only one practical defense against a bomb capable of knocking out a city - planned, orderly evacuation before an attack." - Lt. W.F. Heninger, Director of Civil Defense Corp.

Widtsoe's Geography of Utah

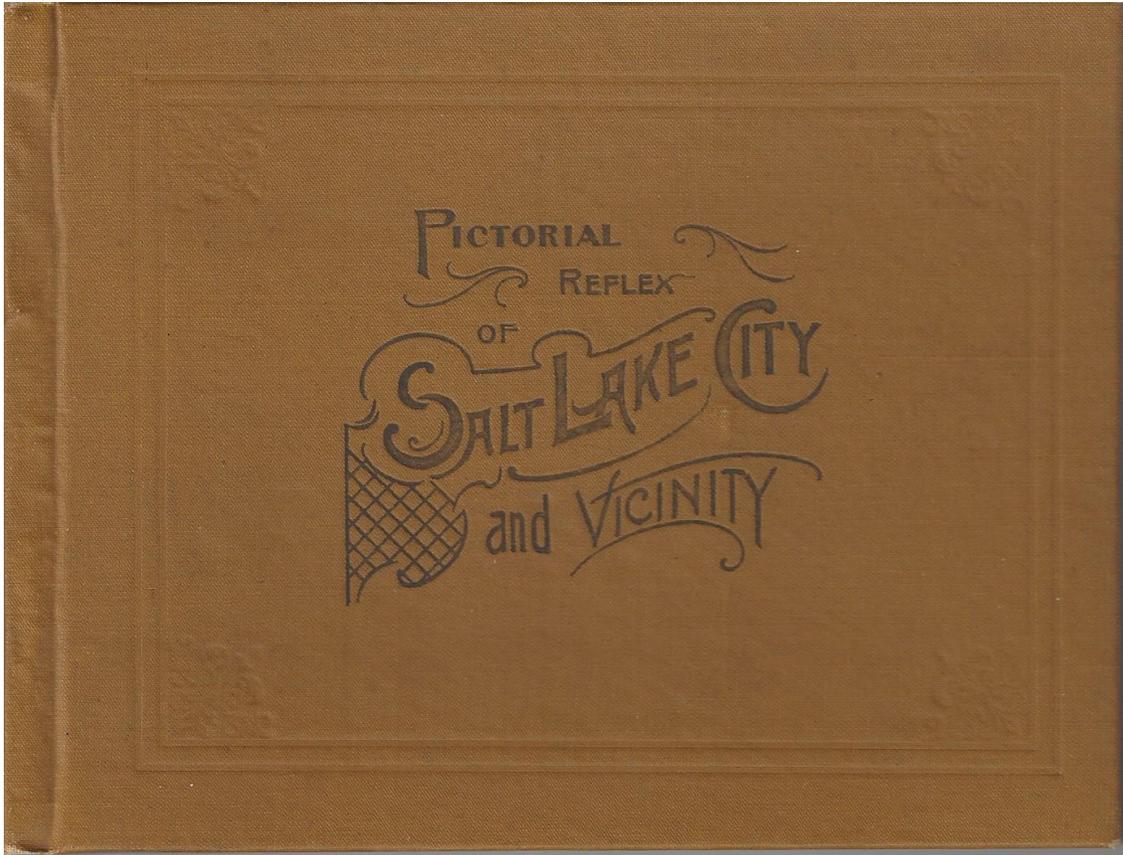

6- Widtsoe, John A. & William Peterson. Dodge's Geography of Utah. Chicago: Rand, McNally & Company, 1908. First Edition. 44pp. Octavo [25.5 cm] Tan cloth with title and borders stamped in black on the front board. Very good. Minor discoloring to boards with two red smudges on rear board. Small library stamp (this is the only library marking on the book) on the front pastedown. Rear endsheet has been excised. Double-page map that appears on page 8-9 is split at the foot.

Uncommon geography work from the then, President of the Agricultural College of Utah [USU], and the future Apostle. Illustrated throughout with maps and photos. Flake/Draper 9811.

Rare First Edition of Salt Lake View Book

7- Savage, Charles Roscoe. Pictorial reflex of Salt Lake City and vicinity, including letter-press description and illustrations of public edifices, hotels, business blocks, churches, Indians, bathing resorts, etc., and a variety of information, valuable for the tourist or the resident, from reliable sources. Salt Lake City: C.R. Savage, Art Bazar, [1893]. True First Edition. 21 plates + 47pp. Oblong sextodecimo [13.5 cm x 17.5 cm] Mustard cloth boards with the title gilt stamped on the front board. Very good.

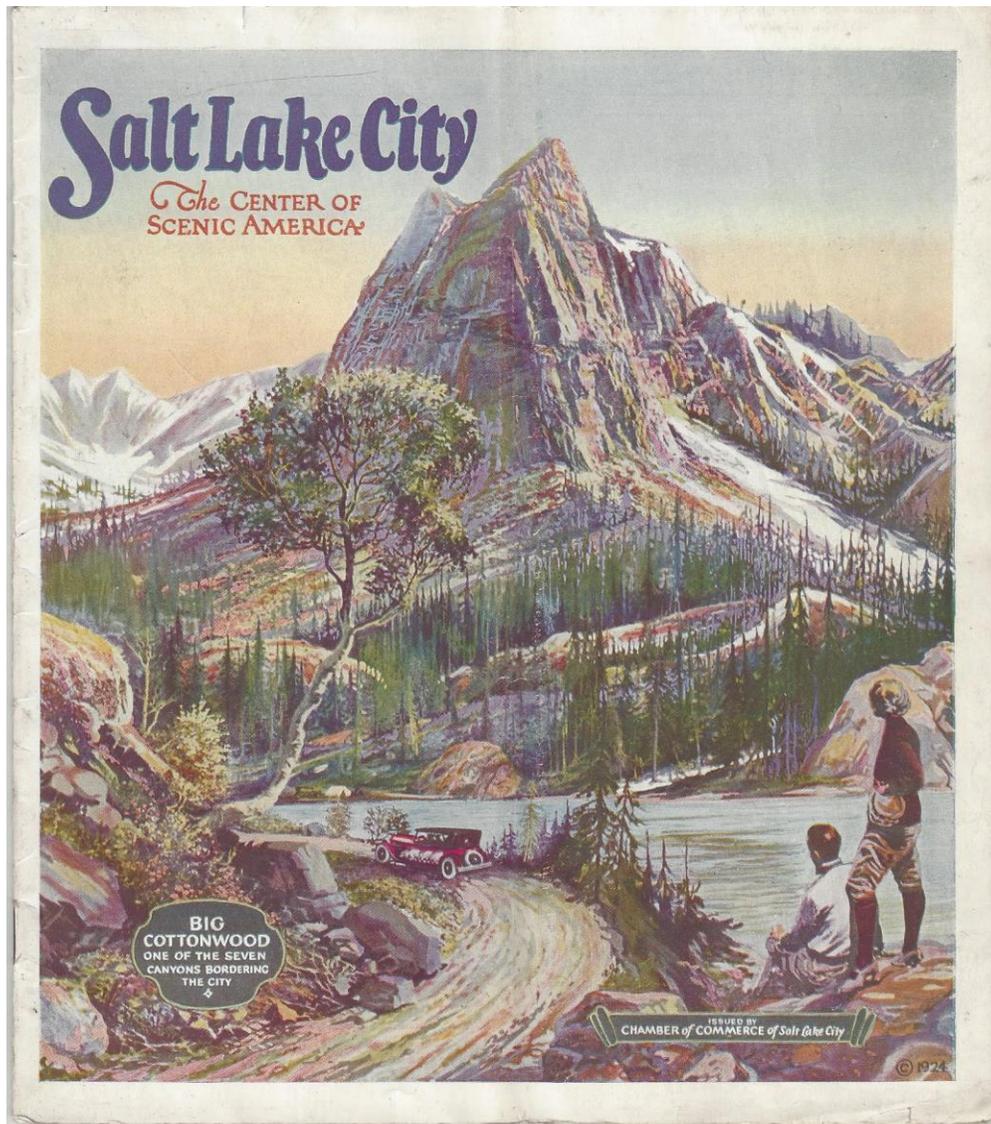

Not in Flake/Draper. This is the true first edition with 21 numbered plates of Salt Lake City and the surrounding area, that is followed by 47 pages of descriptions of the plates as well brief descriptions of life in Salt Lake and facts about various aspects of the city.

I believe this was printed in 1893 due to a handful of allusions to date, including the following examples: in the Salt Lake Temple image description: "...that its dedication should take place on the sixth of April, 1893." -p.1 and a description of 'The Mineral Product for 1892' - p.36.

This is a title that went through numerous reprints. I can locate three institutional copies of this edition (SMU, UU, SLPUB).

9- Stokes, Jeremiah & Jack Sears. Thunder Cave is Ready to Bring Happiness To Your Home. Salt Lake City: Western Distributing Office, 1932. Single leaf [28 cm x 18 cm] printed in black and red ink. Very good.

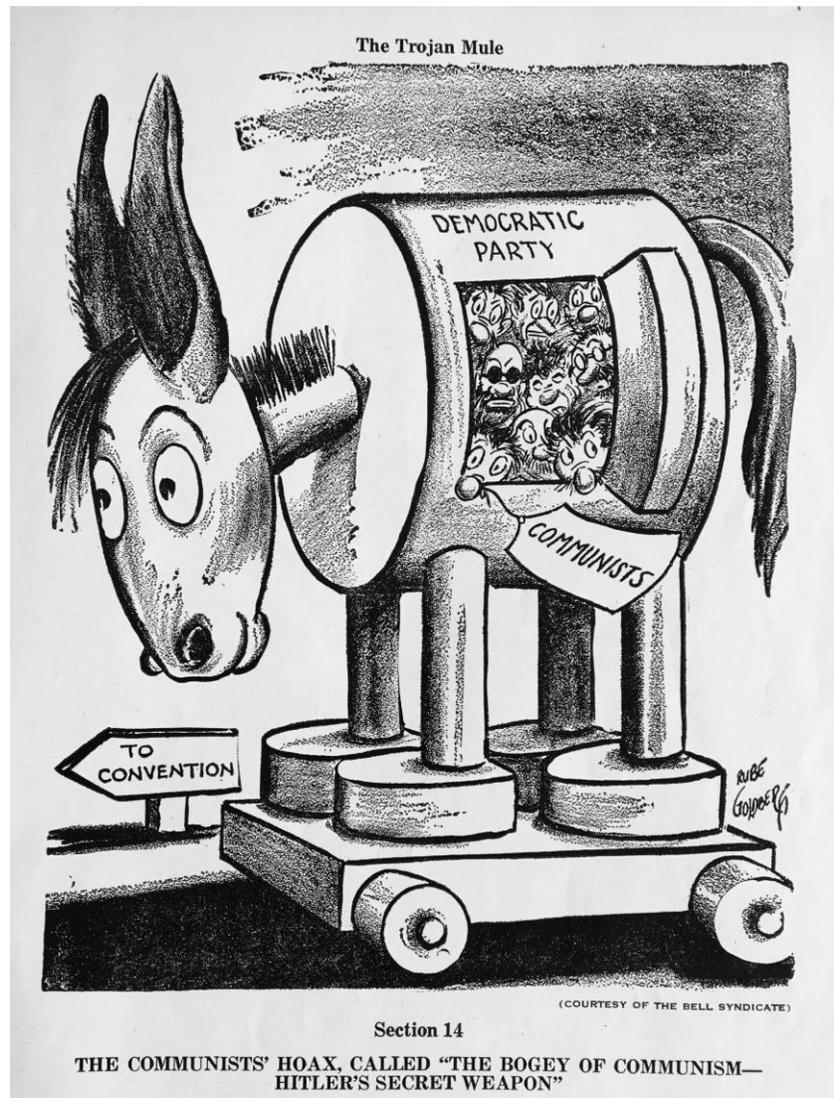

Souvenir from the radio program, Thunder Cave, was printed in book-form in 1932, and became a beloved children's classic in Mormon country. Souvenir has a bookmark along the right edge that can be cutout, and features Lightnin Shure Shot.

"Tho' rascals rave Old Shure-Shot, brave Preserves the peace In Thunder Cave - This Lightnin Shure-Shot Never missed a Single MARK He Aimed At - So Shure-shot, true We're sending you to MARK The Place You Stopped At."

This is not something I have handled or seen previously.

Red Scare Screed from the Author of Thunder Cave

10- Stokes, Jeremiah. Americans' Castle of Freedom: Under Bolshevik Fire on Our Home Front. Fateful Facts All America Must Know. Salt Lake City: Federated Libraries, Inc., 1944. Second Edition. 83pp. Quarto [27 cm] Light blue side-stamped wrappers. Very good.

From the author of Thunder Cave, comes this "Red Scare" gem with the usual boogymen: liberal Hollywood, the Democratic Party, labor unions, Communists Jews, etc. Illustrated with some fun and kitsch cartoons. To quote Yogi Berra "It's like déjà vu all over again."

Rare Mormon Metaphysical Work

11- Skarin, Annalee. "Ye Are Gods". Logan, UT: 1948. First Edition. 130pp. Duodecimo [21 cm] Blue cloth with the title gilt stamped on the front board and backstrip. Near fine.

This is the uncommon self-published first edition of this Mormon/metaphysical work that the author claimed was "written under the direction and power of God and according to his command." Annalee Skarin (1899-1988) was raised in the LDS faith and through self-proclaimed revelation wrote this work on how humans through Christian work could attain "translation" and immortality. The ideas printed in this book would lead to Skarin's excommunication.

The Dream Mine

12- Kraut, Ogden. John H. Koyle's Relief Mine. Dugway, UT: Kraut's Pioneer Press, 1978. First Edition. 203pp. Octavo [22 cm] White grained wrappers with the title printed in gold on the front panel and the backstrip. Very good. Age-toning and sunning to backstrip and extremities of wrappers.

This is the rare first edition of independent fundamentalist, Ogden Kraut's work on John Koyle's Relief Mine [Dream Mine]. Koyle was a well-liked member of the Spanish Fork community, who beginning in 1894, had a series of dreams/visions of a large cache of Spanish gold and ore that was tucked away in the mountains above the town of Salem, Utah. Koyle (and others) believed that this cache could be mined and would offer "relief" to the faithful Mormons during world calamity and the second coming. From then to the present, many have tried to locate and reach these riches. The white mine head is visible from just about anywhere in the south end of Utah Valley

Failed Blackmail Results in Beautiful Book

13- Talmage, James E. The House of the Lord: A Study of Holy Sanctuaries Ancient and Modern. Salt Lake City: The Deseret News, 1912. First Edition. 333pp. Octavo [20 cm] Light green cloth with title gilt stamped on the front board and backstrip. Borders and Salt Lake Temple design stamped in light blue on the front board. Top edge gilt. Near fine. Former owner name in pencil on the front free endsheet.

Nice copy of this important work on LDS Temples, that was the product of a failed blackmail attempt of the LDS Church. Contains 46 photographs of LDS Temples including 31 interior shots of the Salt Lake Temple that were taken by C.R. Savage's son, Ralph Savage. The first edition contains a photo of the Holy of Holies, which was omitted from later editions. Flake/Draper 8637.

Rare Lithograph

14- Crocheron, George Washington. The Youthful Prophet, Joseph Smith, Jr., and Oliver Cowdery, Receiving the Aaronic Priesthood under the Hands of John the Baptist, May 15, 1829. Words of the ordination. Salt Lake City: George W. Crocheron, 1898. Lithograph [90.5 cm x 60.5 cm] Minor discoloring and chipping to extremities at margins (does not affect the image) likely from previous mat and frame. Gentle dampstaining to lower left corner

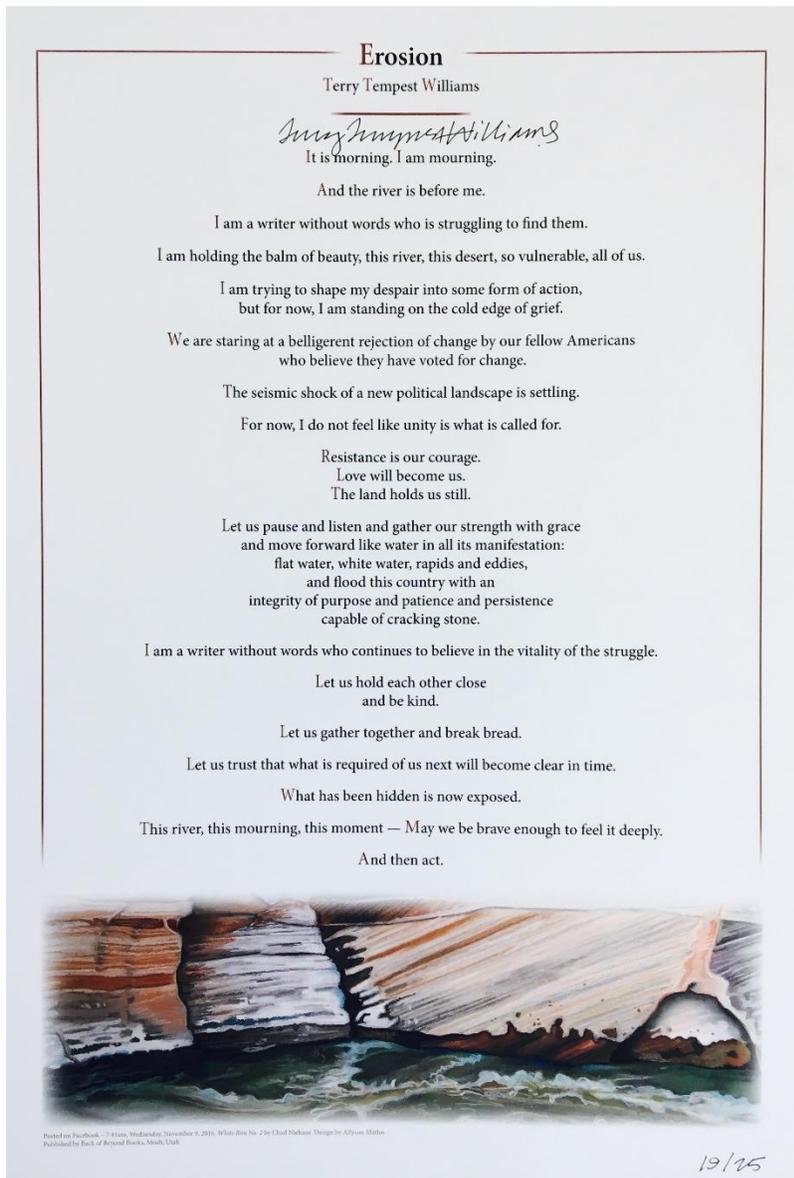

Image shows the Prophet Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery kneeling in the wilderness on either side of John the Baptist, who is conferring the Aaronic Priesthood on both. The words of the ordination printed at the foot, beneath the title.

This attractive image offers a portrait of this foundational event in the history of the LDS Church.

I can locate two institutional holdings for this lithograph (LDS CHL, LoC). BYU appears to have a smaller version of this. Rare.

Terry Tempest Williams Broadside

15- Williams, Terry Tempest.
Erosion. Moab: Back of Beyond Books, 2016. 1/25. Broadside [49 cm x 33 cm] Text printed in red and black ink with the Chad Niehaus painting 'White Rim No.2' reproduced in color at the foot. Fine.

#19 of 25, signed and numbered broadsides by the renowned writer and naturalist. This work was originally posted to Facebook on November 9, 2016 at 7:41 am.

"It is morning. I am mourning. And the river is before me. I am a writer without words who is struggling to find them. I am holding the balm of beauty, this river, this desert, so vulnerable, all of us. I am trying to shape my despair into some form of action, but for now, I am standing on the cold edge of grief. We are staring at a belligerent rejection of change by our fellow Americans who believe they have voted for change. The seismic shock of a new political landscape is settling. For now, I do not feel like unity is what is called for.

Resistance is our courage. Love will become us. The land holds us still. Let us pause and listen and gather our strength with grace and move forward like water in all its manifestation: flat water, white water, rapids and eddies, and flood this country with an integrity of purpose and patience and persistence capable of cracking stone. I am writer without words who continues to believe in the vitality of the struggle. Let us hold each other close and be kind. Let us gather together and break bread. Let us trust that what is required of next will become clear in time. What has been hidden is now exposed. This river, this mourning, this moment — May we be brave enough to feel it deeply. And then act."
